

FAMILY PORTRAIT N°1

FAMILY PROFILE:

Father of 4 children, Country of origin:
Angola, Years in Spain: 3 and a half years

HOME LANGUAGE:

Portuguese

SCHOOL LANGUAGE : Spanish

GOOD PRACTICE

When my children started school, they communicated in "Portuñol" (a mixture of Portuguese and Spanish), but they had translators at school, which we are grateful for. We don't feel rejection for speaking our language, we feel rejection every day because of our skin color.

FAMILY PORTRAIT N°2

FAMILY PROFILE:

Mother of 3 children, Country of Origin: Morocco

HOME LANGUAGES: Berber and Arabic

SCHOOL LANGUAGE : Spanish

GOOD PRACTICE

I would love to have Arabic classes at school so that my children don't lose the language, at home I try to get them to speak it, but it's complicated. I also think it would be good if the school or the town hall could find a person to translate for us when we arrive, because it is very difficult for us.

FAMILY PORTRAIT N°3

FAMILY PROFILE:

Mother of 2 children, Country of Origin: Syria

HOME LANGUAGES:

Arabic

SCHOOL LANGUAGE : Spanish

GOOD PRACTICE

The school is very helpful for us to understand each other, we trust each other, so when we need help we just say so. There is no problem with speaking Arabic on school grounds with the families who also speak it, and the children in the playground can also speak it.

FAMILY PORTRAIT N°4

FAMILY PROFILE:

Mother of 2 children, Country of Origin: Ukraine

HOME LANGUAGES:

Ukrainian

SCHOOL LANGUAGE : Spanish

GOOD PRACTICE

At the school we are fortunate that several teachers know more languages. The director explained to me how the school works in English when I arrived, I am very grateful.

FAMILY PORTRAIT N°5

FAMILY PROFILE:

Mother of 2 children, Country of Origin: Portugal

HOME LANGUAGES:

Portuguese

SCHOOL LANGUAGE : Spanish

GOOD PRACTICE

At school they are inclusive with languages. At the beginning my daughter spoke Portuguese, she even taught words to the teacher, so she acquired Spanish little by little. Now she only speaks Portuguese at home, because at school there are no other children who speak our language.
